

Women, Children and Youth Affairs in Collaboration with Sida Organized a tracer study workshop focused on Female graduate's achievement and experience at Sarem International Hotel on 21st of January 2021. Four female and two special need support students participated in the tracer study.

Fentanesh Anley

Thesis Title: Exploring different neutral ion dark matter annihilation channels in gamma- ray frequency emission in simulated coma like galaxy cluster.

Organization: Dire Dawa University, Dire Dawa, Ethiopia

Email: tesfatc@gmail.com

Fasika Chekol

Thesis Title: Education for Human Capacity Building: Achievements and Shortcomings in the Ethiopian experience

Organization: Debrem Markos University, Debre markos, Ethiopia

Email: Fasikachekol2007@gmail.com

Banchaymolu Terefe

Thesis Title: Determinants of Small Scale Irrigation Use and Its Implications on Poverty Reduction: Empirical Evidences from Bogena River Catchment in Awabel Woreda, East Gojjam, Ethiopia.

Email: banchuterefe21@gmail.com

Mary Ayele

Thesis Title: Aflatoxin Exposure among Children Ages 12 to 59 Months in Butajira District, South-Central Ethiopia: A community based cross-sectional study

Organization: Doctors with Africa Forum, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

Email: maryaye4@gmail.com

Terefe Mihret

Thesis Title: The Practice of Inclusive Education at Debre Tabor Town in Two Selected Primary Schools

Organization: Bahir Dar University, Bahir Dar, Ethiopia

Email: terefemihret100@gmail.com

Tilahun Bedada

Thesis Title: challenges facing blind people living with HIV/AIDS in relation to their adherence

Organization: Ethiopian Centre for Disability and Development (ECDD), Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

Email: tillecool@gmail.com

Sida supported female and special needs masters graduates now employed in various national universities and NGOs. Left to right: Special needs graduates Mr. Tilahun Bedada and Mr. Terefe Mihret; females Mrs. Fentanesh Anley, Ms. Banchaymolu Terefe, Ms. Fasika Chekol (front), Ms. Mary Ayele and middle Professor Brook Lemma, AAU-Sida Projects Coordinator.

Group photo of the participants of the tracer study workshop; with special focus on females and special needs graduates sponsored by Sida and organized by Women, Children and Youth Affairs Directorate of AAU, Sarem International Hotel on 21 January 2021

Photo of the participants of the tracer study workshop; with special focus on females and special needs graduates sponsored by Sida and organized by Women, Children and Youth Affairs Directorate of AAU, Sarem International Hotel on 21 January 2021