

The Office of the Industry Linkage and Technology Transfer (ILTT) of Addis Ababa University Organized Validation Workshop for its University-Industry Linkage and Technology Transfer (UILTT) Grand Policy with AAU-SIDA Project support at Eshetu Chole Hall of the College of Business and Economics

The President of Addis Ababa University, Prof. Tassew Woldehanna, delivering the keynote address and setting a direction for the policy validation workshop.

Shumey Berhie (PhD), Director of the Office of the Industry Linkage and Technology Transfer, presenting the rationales for the UILTT grand policy in his introductory speech on the policy validation workshop.

Ameha Mulugeta (PhD), one of the team of experts who developed the policy, presenting part of the UILTT grand policy.

Wondwosen Bogale (Ing., PhD), one of the team of experts who developed the policy, presenting part of the UILTT grand policy.

Dr. Belay, Director of the Institute of Educational Research

Prof. Hagos, Director of Graduate Programs of AAU

The turnout was very positive. Participants actively engaged in the discussion with their invaluable inputs on the UILTT grand policy

Dr. Tesfaye, Director, Institute of Biotechnology

Dr. Solomon, Director, Research and Technology Transfer of AAIT

The turnout was very positive. Participants actively engaged in the discussion with their invaluable inputs on the UILTT grand policy

Wro. Tewobista, from the Job Creation Commission

Ato Tadesse, from the Ministry of Innovation and Technology

Participants from government organizations and the industry joined us in the validation workshop. Participants actively engaged in the discussion with their invaluable inputs on the UILTT grand policy. Their inputs were vital to align the UILTT policy of the University with the relevant national policies and government priorities.

Reflections from the stage. Inputs from the participants were welcomed and promised to consider them in improving the grand policy document.

Closing Remarks: Mitike Molla (PhD), Vice President for Research and Transfer of Addis Ababa University, delivering concluding remarks on the policy validation workshop

Group Photo: Some of the participants who attended the UILTT Grand Policy Workshop! Thank you for your presence and valuable contributions.